Foreign Influence.

"Above all, we ought to drive from our shores foreign influence, and cherish exclusively American feelings. Foreign influence has been in every age the curse of the Republic. Her jaundiced eyes see all things in false colors. Her distorted perspective, by which she is forever surrounded, excludes from her sight the light of reason. Let us, then, learn wisdom from our experience, and forever banish the fiend from our country."

The above is attributed by Know Nothing and Abolition papers to James Buchanan. We think it very likely that Mr. Buchanan may be the author of it. It is a very patriotic sentiment, and Mr. Buchanan has been the author of many patriotic sentiments during the whole of his useful and illustrious life. "Foreign influence" and "foreigners" are two different things. British abolitionism constitutes the only "foreign influence" now existing in this country, and in that the Black Republican and Know Nothing parties are fully steeped. There is more true Americanism in one Democratic German or Irishman, than in the whole Abolition and Know Nothing crew, from N. P. Banks down to George D. Prentiss.

Tippecanoe Battle Ground.

The great Democratic rally in Indiana, upon the Battle Ground of Tippecanoe, on next Wednesday and Thursday, 3d and 4th of September, is going to be one of the grandest demonstrations that has ever taken place in the West. Every State in the West will pour out its number of delegates, and every county in Indiana and Illinois will send out its fifties, its hundreds, or its thousands. Kentucky will have a large delegation in attendance, among whom will be the Hon. John C. Breckinridge, Col. Wm. Preston, Jas. B. Clay, Col. C. C. Rogers, R. W. Woolly, Col. W. J. Heady, and others.

The Know Nothings of the South have been forced by their support of Fillmore and the platform on which he stands, to side with the Black Republicans against the South. The Kansas-Nebraska bill, involving the repeal of that odious restriction against the South—the Missouri Compromise—is the question in the canvass, and is the issue between the North and the South—Fillmore and his party have united with the Black Republicans in denouncing the repeal of that line. They unite with the enemies of the South in denouncing a measure that was the greatest triumph the South ever gained.

This is a stubborn fact—it is a fact that it is an important fact, and it is a fact that we defy any man to deny.

We say the Southern Know Nothings have been forced into this position by the action of their party and the position of their candidate.

We challenge a denial. On the other hand, the Democratic party advocated and now maintains this great Southern measure. Which of the two parties will Southern men support?

The New York Herald says that for the present, the friends of Fremont in the South are compelled to fight under the banner of Fillmore.

People of the South, hear this. We do not change that the friends of Fillmore in the South are enemies of the South; but we do say that the similitude between Black Republicans and Know Nothingism on the vital question of this canvass gives the Abolitionists some ground for thinking that the Southern friends of Fillmore agree with them in their warfare upon the South. Hence the Herald says that the "friends of Fremont in the South" have, for the present, to support Fillmore.

And yet another. Gen. C. D. Post in the R. N. (candidate for Governor, in Mississippi), said Governor McRae at the last election, has quit Fillmore and declared himself in favor of Buchanan and Breckinridge. One by one we are detecting the intelligence and honesty of the opposite party. Gentlemen how much longer will you kick?

A Southern correspondent of the New York Day Book, wants to know why the editor of that journal does not fight Fillmore stronger. The editor replies: "I prefer to give our attention to those who are running. When we think there is a reasonable probability of Mr. Fillmore carrying one State in the Union, we will talk about him."

The Cleveland Plaindealer says a steamer has just brought down from Lake Superior a thousand pounds of moss for Dr. Terry, of Detroit, who has been making experiments upon it in the manufacture of paper. The doctor says that moss makes a beautiful white paper without any preparation of the raw material for the common paper mills. In all respects it is equal to linden paper, and can be had in unlimited quantities on Isle Royale and several other localities in the vicinity at a small cost.

Col. Wm. Preston spoke at Owingsville, in both county, on Saturday last, to one of the largest assemblages that ever took place in the history of Kentucky. We understand that his speech was a glorious effort of burning and fervid eloquence.

The Colonel also spoke in Winchester, on Monday last, to a large and enthusiastic audience.

He has not yet recovered from the attack of a sore throat, and is yet very hoarse, but he will nevertheless soon start on a rapid tour through Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan, and will speak at several leading points in each of those States.

From the Hopkinsville Press we learn that Judge Cook's true official position in his District is four hundred and sixty-five, and Col. Henry's three hundred and sixty-five. The Democratic gain in the District over Moreheads vote last August is fifty-eight.

A most interesting trial was terminated in the Fayette Circuit Court on Wednesday, in which speeches were made to the Jury by John C. Breckinridge, Roger W. Hanson, Garrett Davis, and Thos. F. Marshall. Lexington has witnessed many a forensic display, but it has seldom witnessed one more brilliant than that of last Wednesday.

A CARD OF CONFESSION.—The Framonters know very well that Fillmore is indirectly helping Buchanan in several Northern States. They are fully aware that if he were out of the way, the entire North would be swept by the Fremont candidate. At the same time, they are ignorant that Fillmore has been indirectly helping Buchanan, and that every electoral vote he may receive, will to that extent impair the chances of the Democratic candidate.

We take the above extract from the N. O. Bee, a strong Know-Nothing journal. It is a candid confession—indirectly—that the supporters of Fillmore are Fremont, and that it is withdrawn they will vote for Fremont.

Letter of Hon. Richard Hawes.

TO A FRIEND IN FRANKLIN COUNTY.

PERM. AUGUST 18, 1856.

DEAR SIR: You inquire whether the Old-Line Whigs of Kentucky should vote for Fillmore, Breckinridge, or not. I give you my candid and unreflected opinion on some of the leading topics of the Presidential election.

There is no kind of civil or polite dispute, that the great leading principle involved in the contest, is the slavery question.

Mr. Fremont, his allies and confederates, do not publicly agree in this anti-slavery creed. One of his political friends declares that slavery is a sin, and that it is a violation of the inalienable rights of God, that there can be no valid title to slave property; and that it should be wiped out of the entire country. Another column of his friends declares that slavery is a sin, and that it is a violation of the inalienable rights of God, that there can be no valid title to slave property; and that it should be wiped out of the entire country.

What is the practical difference to the Catholic what he is disfranchised by an act of Congress, or by executive mandates of an outlandish and dominant party?

The bad effect of the Know-Nothing organization upon the freeholder and Catholic are now manifestly evident.

FRIDAY: AUGUST 29, 1856.

JOB PRINTING.

The proprietors of the Louisville Times having recently refitted and greatly enlarged their Job printing facilities, invite the patronage of the public.

MERCANTILE, STEAMBOAT, SHOP, POSTER and other printing done in a superior manner, with great expedition, and at the lowest rates.

We invite all who desire work done to call, and examine our facilities and specimens.

We have experienced workmen employed, and warrant all work to give entire satisfaction.

Mass Meetings.

The Democratic Central Committee, for the 1st District, having consulted with the party in various parts of the District, think it advisable to call Mass Meetings at the following times and places, to-wit:

Saturday, Sept. 20, Nemo, Hopkins county.
Tuesday, 22, White Sulphur, Caldwell co.
Wednesday, 23, Near Cedar, Trigg county.
Friday, 25, Murray, Calloway county.
Saturday, 26, Mayfield, Graves county.
Tuesday, 30, Grooms Spring, Fulton co.
Wednesday, Oct. 1, Near Mill, Hickman co.
Friday, 3, Near Blaine, Ballou co.
Saturday, 4, Gun Spring, McCracken co.
Monday, 6, Benton, Marshall county.
Tuesday, 7, Near Nashville, Livingston co.
Wednesday, 8, Near Paducah, Lyon co.
Thursday, 9, Near Marion, Crittenden co.
Saturday, 11, Near Morganfield, Union co.

There will be speaking at the Court House at night, in each county.

Distinguished speakers from this and other States have been invited, and are expected to be present and address the people at the above meetings. Let the friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge turn out en masse. We promise you a treat, in the way of speaking.

WM. NOLEN, Chairman.
G. H. MORGAN, Secretary.

Thanks to Adams & Co's Express for Cincinnati papers.

The Money market was calm in New York, Monday, the bank statement being considered favorable.

A company of thirty-five young men arrived from Lexington yesterday en route for Kansas. They were in charge of Col. Joseph Shelby.

ORDER GROVE ACADEMY—PORTLAND, KY.—The next session of this, under the direction of the Sisters of Love, will commence on Monday next, the 1st of September. As the classes will be formed within the first few days, pupils will not delay to enter the school without unnecessary delay. 3d

SISTERS BOARDING SCHOOL, PORTLAND.—The exercises of the Cedar Grove Female Academy in Portland, will begin on the 1st of September. This institution is one of the best in the State. The Sisters who have charge of it are highly educated, and their maternal care of their pupils is proverbial.

For Cairo, Hickman and Memphis.—To-day at 12 o'clock, the fine light-draught steamer City of Cairo, Capt. J. D. Yocum, will leave for the above ports. She is a magnificent boat to travel on, and passengers will find her officers experienced and clever gentlemen. Secure a stateroom.

The editors of this paper acknowledge the receipt of invitations to the Kentucky Agricultural and Mechanical Association. The corporation will be there. We shall have occasion hereafter to speak at length of the association.

The Louisville delegation to the "Grand Union Convention" returned last night. There were about 25 persons, including the two bands, and eleven boys. They marched up to the Journal office and called for Preston, but unfortunately the editor was unwell. Whiskey, whose boots happened not to be tight, harrassed them a few minutes with a "cock and ball" story about Fillmore, Donelson and the Pope.

For Tippecanoe Battle Ground.—It will be seen by the advertisement of the Jeffersonville Railroad that they will sell excursion tickets to the Tippecanoe Battle Ground, at the Louisville office, Jeffersonville Depot, and all way stations, between Jeffersonville and Indianapolis at half the usual fare. Excursion trains leave Jeffersonville on Tuesday, 28 September, at 9 o'clock P. M., and arrive Indianapolis at 9 o'clock P. M. At which time and place preparations have been made by the Breckinridge Guard of Indianapolis to give them a grand and hearty reception. Excursion trains for the Battle Ground leave Indianapolis at 5 A. M., on the 3d, and arrive at 8 A. M. Tickets good for three days.

By mail we have additional news from the steamer Niagara. The harvest report from Great Britain and Ireland are of a favorable character, and but little doubt is entertained that the grain crops will be at least a fair average in quantity and quality. In Scotland the crops are very heavy. With respect to potatoes there is a general concurrence of evidence that the crop though not entirely free from disease in some parts of England, Ireland and Scotland, promises to be abundant and excellent.

Ron. Lind Boyd made an able speech at Mayfield last Monday, to a large and enthusiastic audience. Col. B. will soon make a list of appointments running through the centre of the State.

The Young Men's Democratic Club of the Eighth Ward, will meet at the corner of Thirtieth and Main streets, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of raising a Buchanan and Breckinridge Pole. The pole is made of hickory, and is 125 feet in height. A number of speakers have been invited, and a gala time may be anticipated. Let there be a full attendance.

PAROCHIAL SCHOOL OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—This excellent institution will be opened on Monday next, September 1st, under the superintendence of Rev. Mr. Schetty. The accomplished and faithful Rector of St. John's Church, The past history of this school, though brief, is so well known to all interested in the training and educating of the young, as to need little notice from us. The Rector, Mr. Schetty, will be assisted by a corps of well trained and experienced teachers, admirably qualified for their work. The higher classes will be under the charge of the Rector himself, but his more immediate and parochial duties will receive the same devoted attention and active discharge as heretofore.

REMARKS ON THE EXHIBITION.—B. Swain & Co., known as talented and experienced artists, have received and are receiving their new fall and winter goods, which they will convert into suits at the option of their customers, in the nearest style and after the latest of fashion. In their cutting and fitting none can be more particular or successful. A number of complimentary essays from one who has been one of our contributors, have been selected in New York by Mr. Swain himself with great taste and judgment, and must elicit the appreciation of the most fastidious critic, for their elegance and excellence. Old customers will flock to Mr. B. Swain & Co., and new ones will find their elegant establishment on Jefferson street, opposite Green's Hotel.

FRIDAY: AUGUST 29, 1856.

JOB PRINTING.

The proprietors of the Louisville Times having recently refitted and greatly enlarged their Job printing facilities, invite the patronage of the public.

MERCANTILE, STEAMBOAT, SHOP, POSTER and other printing done in a superior manner, with great expedition, and at the lowest rates.

We invite all who desire work done to call, and examine our facilities and specimens.

We have experienced workmen employed, and warrant all work to give entire satisfaction.
